Clue 1)

Please note that all the streets you will walk along during this trail allow traffic so please ensure when you are reading clues that everyone is safe. Car Parking nearby includes – Linen Street, Castle Street but there are lots of other car parks to choose from.

We are giving you your first clue.

The first Olly can be found at

Timpsons/Johnsons - 3 Swan Street. CV34 4BJ.

Directions: - the next two clues are also on Swan Street.

Clue 2)

Still on this street if you feel like a mess

Come to this shop for a fabulous dress

The name reminds us of hot chocolate and an English flower

Olly has both and has been cosy for hours

Clue 3)

Travelling not too far away

This shop helps with all sorts of play

All that you need for tennis, golf, rugby and football

Is under one roof and Olly's waiting for you all.

Directions: - Turn next left for your next two clues.

Clue 4)

On the street named like a stream

Olly got hungry for a cake with cream

You can also buy olives, quiche and sandwiches too

Lots to munch on that will satisfy you

Clue 5)

Still on this street

Olly is in search of some marvellous meat

Sausages, burgers, roast dinners galore

Maybe you'll hear him having a roar.

Directions – Back to Swan Street and turn left. Walk up to the door of the museum and facing it look left, or right?

Clue 6)

Turn around and this shop is facing you

Dresses, coats and earrings too

It begins with the letter "K" and has lots of style

Olly's in a pickle – it might make you smile

Directions – Continue into the marketplace.

Clue 7)

Now cross over the Market Place

Where you will find your next Base.

You are sure to find something that you might need,

But definitely a story you might like to read

Directions: - Back into the main marketplace near to the silver birds.

Clue 8)

This place collects all your post

Sending letters and packages from coast to coast

Santa's letters go the North Pole

Lists arriving on time to the elves is their goal

Directions: - Carry on along Old Square and go past the Church and onto Church Street. Walk all the way to the end and turn left at the Tourist Information onto Jury Street. Continue left down Jury Street and go under the stone archway clock tower spotting the unusually shaped post box on the way. The plaque on the tower explains why it is shaped differently. Your next two clues are on this street.

Clue 9)

Much further down Smith street now for you

In search of healthy fruit and vegetables too

The name of the shop is a veg long and green

You'll look up and find Olly's next sustainable scene.

Clue 10)

Across the road to find our next stop

Colours and smells are abundant in this shop

Roses, lilies, daisies and bluebells

Olly loves flowers and the beautiful smells

Directions: - So now turn back the way you have just come, back up Smith St, under the Stone Archway onto Jury Street. Keep walking. You will cross over Church St and Swan St, which are on your right. Just after Swan St you will find your next clue. Have a look at all the different coloured and shaped buildings as you walk. Do you know the names of any of the architecture?

Clue 11)

The High Street is a good place for legal advice

We know these solicitors are all very nice

There are two names in the title for all to see

If you look in the window – that's where Olly will be

Directions: - Continue down High Street under the next stone archway and another funny shaped post box. Cross over Bowling Green St and continue along this Street for your next clue.

Clue 12)

A point on the compass is the street where you should be

Olly needs a saw for his Christmas tree

Hammers, nails, lightbulbs ad screws

Everything DIY you might use

Directions: - Turn around and go back under the Clock Tower stone archway and passed the post box up the High St and turn left into Swan Street back towards Timpsons.

Clue 13)

Turn right around and if you need a gift

You can pop over to this shop; but you'd better be swift

This is the time for showing you care

Look around this shop for presents everywhere

Directions: - Walk back towards Lloyds Bank and with your back to the Bank look across the road.

And Finally - Time to reflect on who this is for

Look across to Molly Olly's front door

Thank you for all your help and support

Look up and wave to Olly – show your support!

One lucky winner will get to keep Big Olly

The letters you have collected should spell something jolly

Think of something in the house which sums up the special day

Arrange the letters in the correct way

Thank you and we hope you enjoyed your trail. If you would like to donate to help children who have life-threatening or life-limiting illnesses, please go onto the Molly Olly Wishes Website and click on the pink donate button.

As you can imagine this year has been extremely difficult for our charity as our fundraising has significantly reduced but we are seeing a massive increase in wishes and children requiring Olly The Brave therapeutic lions and books to help explain their journey. Anything you can give to help Olly The brave and Molly Olly's Wishes support children and their families through their darkest days would be extremely gratefully received.
